SPEAKER SHEET · DEAF EDUCATION CONSULTING LLC

Michelle Andros

Teacher of D/HH children (PreK-12) · Special Education Administrator · Visual Phonics Trainer

About

Over 25 years teaching children with hearing loss, certified Teacher of D/HH children, PreK-12 and Special Education Administrator. Visual Phonics Trainer, Guest Speaker and Business Owner.

Michelle has taught D/HH students in Virginia and Pennsylvania, served as an itinerant teacher of the Deaf, consulted statewide with PaTTAN, led external education at DePaul School for Hearing and Speech, and coordinates itinerant services at the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf. She is sign language proficient and an Ambassador to Eduplex Institute in South Africa.

Talk topics

01 Comprehensive assessment and collaboration, eligibility to service delivery

02 Expanded Core Competencies and functional performance in deaf education

03 Creating best-practice, compliant IEPs

04 Teachers of the D/HH and SLPs working together in general education

05 Literacy strategies for every strand of the Reading Rope

06 See the Sound Visual Phonics training

07 Custom topics related to deaf education

Selected appearances

- University of Colorado and Edinboro University Deaf Education programs, guest lecturer (2026)
- American Society for Deaf Children Conference, Charleston, SC (2024)
- Maryland State Deaf and Hard of Hearing Statewide Conference (2024)
- Supporting Success for Children with Hearing Loss Biennial Conference (2024)
- PaTTAN Hour with the Expert Series (2022)
- University of Pittsburgh School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences, guest lecturer (2020-2022)

Credentials

BA, Education of Persons with Hearing Loss, Indiana University of Pennsylvania · MA, Education Administration and Supervision, Shenandoah University · PA Level 2 Teaching Licenses (Hearing Impaired; English 7-12) · Special Education Supervisory Certification, Slippery Rock University · See the Sound Visual Phonics Trainer

Invite Michelle to speak

deafeducationconsultingllc@gmail.com

724-454-6332

Live or virtual · Licensed in Pennsylvania, working worldwide · Travel season: June, July, August